

About the Editors

Martin Testa holds a PhD in Linguistics from the University of Warsaw and an MA in English Philology from the University of Vigo. He is currently serving as a Lecturer and Research Fellow at the Faculty of Modern Languages at the University of Warsaw. His research focuses on text linguistics, sociolinguistics, discourse analysis, multilingualism, and Romance languages. He is an active member of the editorial board for the Itinerarios journal (ISSN: 1507-7241) at the same faculty. Additionally, he has collaborated with Samuel Figueira-Cardoso in organising the “Young Researchers Seminar” (SEJ-In, 2021, 2022, 2025) at the University of Warsaw.

Samuel Figueira-Cardoso holds a PhD in Linguistics from the University of Warsaw, an MA in Applied Linguistics from the University of Porto, a BA in Portuguese Language from the Federal University of Western Pará, and a BA in Languages and Literatures from the University of Algarve. He assists in coordinating the IANDÉ Brazilian Languages and Cultures Research Group. His research interests include Portuguese as an additional language, text linguistics, academic writing, and conversation analysis. He has participated in research projects funded by the Brazilian government, as well as by the European Commission (EuroInkaNet).